Ohio Ready To Learn

Due to Government Grant stipulations, priority at registration for this class must be given to Type B Home Providers.

All three sessions will be held during a single six hour class.

Phase One – Exploring Literacy and Language

This workshop provides examples of intentional teaching and learning experiences for children to extend the range and scope of Ohio's Early Learning Content Standards, particularly in the area of phonological awareness. Participants will also be introduced to the Child/Home Early Language & Literacy Observation tool (CHELLO) and demonstrate ways to engage children in conversations that develop creative and critical thinking skills.

Phase Two – Learning Discipline -2

Based on a curriculum designed by Family Communications, Inc., (Mister Rogers' Neighborhood) this session looks at discipline as a time for teaching, rather than a time for punishment. As participants reflect on their own attitudes and practices, the impact of the discipline/communication/relationship cycle on children's behavior will become apparent.

Phase Three – Assessment Using the ASQ:SE

Social-emotional development has a significant impact on learning. Participants will be introduced to The Ages & Stages: Social Emotional Questionnaire (ASQ:SE) and will show evidence of knowledge about its benefits, scoring, appropriate referral recommendations as well as be able to suggest appropriate follow-up activities.
